Welcome

Welcome to City Hall’s autumn season programme.

We’re very excited about our new brand which you’ll see not just in this brochure, but across the venue itself.

The fresh new look reflects our ambition to be the best venue for miles around and our busy autumn programme is packed with music of all genres, sparkling entertainment, and cutting-edge comedy.

We’ve listened to your feedback and are pleased to be able to bring you both the artists we know you’ve enjoyed the most, while keeping our ear to the ground for some great new acts that we think you’ll love just as much.

If you’re planning to pay us a visit, why not make a real night of it? We’ve teamed up with some of the best restaurants in the city to put together some great value pre- and post-theatre meal deals for ticket holders so you can have a really fantastic evening. Find out more on the reverse of this brochure and be sure to let us know what you think.

And talking of value, you may also be interested to know that booking online via our website is now cheaper with just one fee of £2 per transaction (additional booking fees apply on selected shows).

Do follow us on Twitter, like us on Facebook and sign up to our e-news to ensure that you don’t miss out on any new acts we have added or new special offers. We are always posting news, information and fun facts and we love to get your feedback on your experiences too.

We look forward to welcoming you throughout the season and if you have any specific questions about the programme or our offers please get in touch.

Have a great autumn,

General Manager

Mad Dog Mcrea blend a unique mixture of folk rock, pop, gypsy jazz, bluegrass and ‘shake your ass’ music. From self-penned songs of adventure, drinking, love and life, to traditional songs of gypsies, fairies, legless pirates and black flies – Mad Dog never fail to capture their audience with their infectious songs.

In constant demand and having played just about every festival and two-bit, jibe-arsed dive in Christendom, Mad Dog Mcrea are, in every sense of the phrase, a live band. Almost Home encapsulates that, and so much more. The famous purple happy bus is fired up and ready for action, and there’s room for you – jump aboard!

Cara Dillon

If you don’t know the voice of Cara Dillon, you’re in for a treat. If you are already amongst her legions of admirers around the world, you know you have something special in store. A Thousand Hearts, Cara Dillon’s fifth solo album, is another small masterpiece of song and emotion, ethereal and radiant, beautifully honed and perfectly true. The extraordinary Irish singer makes music that transcends genres and crosses barriers. She has won every folk award going, but confesses to being no purist, making music that reaches beyond the constraints and limitations of tradition.

In just seven years Sarah Millican has gone from winning the Best Newcomer Award at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival to becoming one of the UK’s most successful and multi-award-winning comedians, who also holds the record as the highest selling female comedian in the DVD market.

In the past when you put Sarah Millican outside, she asked things like: ‘Why? Where is the taxi? Do I need a cardie?’ and said things like: ‘There’ll be wasps. I’ve nothing to sit on. Is that poo? Can we go home?’ But things have changed, now she has outside slippers. She can tell a chaffinch from a tit (hey). But she still can’t tell if it’s an owl or her husband’s asthma.

Sarah is a natural storyteller who charms the audience through her skilfully delivered gag-packed anecdotes about life’s curiosities. With a track record of three sell out tours and 700,000 combined tour DVD sales to date, the Outsider tour promises to be another critically acclaimed triumph.

City Hall is delighted to welcome back the internationally acclaimed Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra, featuring conductor David Hill and violinist Chloe Hanslip.

Peer Gynt, the story of the downfall and subsequent redemption of a Norwegian peasant anti-hero, one is the composer’s most popular work.

Of the four movements in the Suite No.1, Morning and In The Hall Of The Mountain King are among the most loved of all short orchestral compositions. This “warhorse” by Tchaikovsky is one of the most important works for the violin in the history of Romantic music.

One theme. Fourteen variations: each of Elgar’s Enigma Variations was the result of a parlour game between Elgar and his wife, Alice. He’d played the theme to her, which he described as ‘nothing much, but something might be made of it’. He then proceeded to improvise how it might sound played either in the style of – or in tribute to – their closest friends.

Wilko Johnson

“Man, there’s nothing like being told you’re dying to make you feel alive.” Amen. And whether you’re black, white, green, atheist or believer, it’s what you put into life that’s going to get you anything, or nothing, at the end. And into it Wilko is putting his all.

Wilko was lured into music by the dark magic spun by his first Telecaster, bought from a music store in Southend, Essex, soon after becoming the strutting, grimacing, sixstring rhythmic powerhouse behind Lee Brilleaux in Dr Feelgood. Feel good? Audiences certainly did in the mid ‘70s as Wilko duck-walked his way across countless stages and venues in the UK, with Dr Feelgood in the vanguard of the pub rock movement, performing the gutsy down-to-earth rock and roll that was a welcome antidote to the faltering prog-rock era.

With a top line-up of actor-musicians, multiple costume changes and nostalgic film footage, this glittering two-hour production charts the musical and emotional highs and lows of Elvis’ amazing journey; from poor truck-driving teenager from Tupelo, Mississippi, through the army, Hollywood and finally the legendary Las Vegas concerts. Directed by top record producer David Mackay (Dusty Springfield, Cliff Richard, Bonnie Tyler, New Seekers), the lead role is perfectly portrayed by Mario Kombou (from West End production Jailhouse Rock), who is officially endorsed by Elvis Presley Enterprises and Elvis’ first cousin Donna Presley.

Taking in all the biggest hits including Always On My Mind, (recently voted the UK’s all-time favourite Elvis song), That’s Alright Mama, All Shook Up, Blue Suede Shoes, Suspicious Minds, American Trilogy as well as Hollywood favourites Bossa Nova Baby and Viva Las Vegas, you will leave the building on cloud nine!

Gervase Phinn has been touring theatres across the country for over 10 years now as a hilarious raconteur. The best selling and award winning author, radio and TV personality, really is at his best and most exciting in front of a live audience.

An Evening with Gervase Phinn will have you on the edge of your seats, as he shares his hilarious and sometimes poignant tales of life as a schools inspector in the Yorkshire Dales. Dubbed “the James Herriot of schools.”

With his keen ear for the absurd and sharp eye for the ludicrous, Gervase Phinn has delighted audiences all over the UK with stories of his experiences as a school inspector. His shows have received rave reviews all across the country.
The 2-Tone Tribute Tour

2-Tone took the British music charts by storm in 1979, and for a short, but incredibly exciting period, turned the country into a sea of black and white check. The seven young men at the heart of this musical revolution were The Specials, a band which created a blend of musical genres, mixing punk and Jamaican ska, producing an energy not seen on stage before. The Specials led the way for other bands that joined the 2-Tone movement such as The Selecter, Madness, the Beat, and the Bodysnatchers. The 2-Tone Tribute Tour was formed to bring back that fantastic moment in time for a generation who lived through it. It’s all about the look, the attitude and, of course, the dancing! These iconic bands will be represented by London-based Special Kinda Madness, who play as The Specials and Madness, and The Special Brew from Cardiff who perform as Bad Manners. Two top tribute bands who tour nationally.

Original ‘dreamboats’, Marty Wilde, Eden Kane, Mike Berry, and The Wildcats, as well as very special guest Mark Wynter, join forces in The Solid Gold Rock n Roll Show.

The late fifties and early sixties were without doubt some of the most exciting and important years in the history of music. With the arrival of rock ‘n’ roll, a whole new pop culture was born. Performing their own hits and collaborating live on stage, Marty, Eden, Mike and Mark, teen idols of their day, show us how rock ‘n’ roll with its fusion of sound and rhythm shaped the style of music that we listened to then and still do today.

Includes hits such as A Teenager In Love, Rubber Ball, Donna, I Don’t Know Why, Well I Ask You, Don’t You Think It’s Time, The Sunshine of Your Smile, Venus In Blue Jeans, Go Away Little Girl, and many, many more!
Show of Hands return with ‘Walk With Me - The Big Autumn Tour’ with special guest Megan Henwood.
Featuring songs from 25 years at the top and reunited with the exceptionally talented Miranda Sykes once more, big sounds, uncompromising songs and stunning production make for a evening to remember. This will be the last chance to see them together before their 2017 Albert Hall concert.

Show of Hands are undeniably one of the strongest current forces in acoustic music – England’s finest and most popular roots partnership and something of a “people’s band”, regularly voicing the hopes, fears and life stories of scores of people in song. Joined by Miranda Sykes on double bass they are widely recognised for their resonating original songs, stunning musicianship and remarkable audience rapport.

Stand by Me is the phenomenal musical history of a group that helped to define Atlantic Records, inspired early rock and roll and was a forerunner to both the black music movement in 1950s America and even early Motown. Bringing a remarkable and unique tribute to the icons, challenges, controversy, conflicts and of course the vast succession of over 50 hits over the last six decades. The music sets the scene for our tribute within the lyrics, with well loved songs that transport you straight to Broadway, talk of growing up in 1950s Harlem and even aspire to a black president of the United States… those heady days of Disco and the Northern Soul scene and much more!

Due to phenomenal demand, Jason Donovan returns once more to his pop roots to celebrate Christmas and his 1989 five-times platinum debut, Ten Good Reasons.

Pop star, actor and a musical lead for several decades now, eighties icon Jason Donovan shot to superstardom as the blue-eyed, blonde-haired heartthrob in the Aussie soap Neighbours.

Ten Good Reasons became the biggest selling album of 1989 and remains a massive fan favourite. The album includes two solo No.1 singles - Too Many Broken Hearts and Sealed with a Kiss. It also featured a duet with Kylie Minogue, Especially for You, which reached No.1.

“The response to the spring Ten Good Reasons tour was so overwhelming. The audiences seemed to enjoy re-living that particular time in their lives for a short while as much as I did! I am delighted we have the opportunity to play the songs all over again and then play a few Christmas favourites at the same time.” – Jason Donovan

“The best Rock & Roll show on the road!”
Time Out
SLADE - Without doubt one of the most exciting bands to come out of Great Britain in the past 30 years. With their unique blend of perfect pop rock’n’roll, outrageous flamboyance and pure fun, and no less than 23 Top-20 singles of which six were No.1 smash hits....plus six smash albums, Slade have become a firm favourite in the hearts of pop fans all over the world.

Slade today is still one of the most exciting bands on the road, and their stage performance is a dynamic, powerful and exhilarating roller-coaster ride of pure unadulterated rock’n’roll.

Salisbury has achieved Purple Flag status

Purple Flag is an accreditation scheme that recognises excellence in the management of town and city centres at night. Entertainment areas that achieve the standard are those that offer a better night out to visitors.

Just as Blue Flag is an indicator of a good beach, Purple Flag is set to be the indicator of where to go for a good night out.
