Highly acclaimed for its stunning live entertainment value, That’ll Be The Day is an outstanding celebration for all true fans of the golden era of popular music.

Prepared with an unforgettable night of nostalgia, laughs and ROCK ‘N’ ROLL!

Step back in time to the halcyon days of the 1950s with this amazing new show! Spanning the 50s, 60s & '70s, That’ll Be The Day is a musical feast of 60s classics, with an array of hilarious and heart-warming comic sketches, delivered with the spirit of true rock’n’roll.

Monday 18 June
Following the extraordinary success of the Cradle To Grave tour, I move on to my final statement that I will never undertake such a venture again. The applause of the public can be a seductive narcotic and weaker souls than I would be tempted to repeat the thrills harvested during that lamentable undertaking of a tour with the &. After much reflection I have decided that I can never allow such rampant narcissism to cloud my judgment. I said ‘one farewell’ and I meant ‘one farewell tour’. There will be no more.

Grumpy Old Women
That’s a fact, as Grumpy Old Women have put their knobbly old feet up and retired from the stage. But with the world in a bigger mess than ever, is there anything that can tempt them off their backsides to unleash their superpowers and once more come to the rescue?!

Join us for 90 mins of brand new “full-fat”, “batteries included” comedy from the mistresses of grump.

Wednesday 6 June
Starring Jenny Eclair, Dillie Keane and Lizzie Roper
Fed up with flogging their guts out and always having to be in charge, the Grumpy Old Women have put their knobbly old feet up and retired from the stage. But with the world in a bigger mess than ever, is there anything that can tempt them off their backsides to unleash their superpowers and once more come to the rescue?

Following the extraordinary success of the Cradle To Grave Tour, I have decided to re-record my initial statement that I would never undertake such a venture again. The applause of the public can be a seductive narcotic and weaker souls than I would be tempted to repeat the thrill harvested during that Ipanema weekend of joy if it is simple to bolster their already outstanding ego. After much reflection, I have decided that I cannot allow such temptations to cloud my judgment. I said ‘one farewell tour’ and I meant ‘one farewell tour’. There will be no more.
